Welcome back Shaun! I have attached a couple of documents to capture what happened while you were gone. One is a brief document summarizing items I signed and key notes I thought would be of interest to you. The other document provides the current status for the list of items on the radar for November. I was not planning to do a weekend report this weekend. With the holiday weekend and the fact that our updates would not be all that pressing I thought skipping it would be okay. If you would prefer an update be sent I would choose updates to Slawson, Dakota Access and the BPMD public meetings.

I look forward to seeing you on Monday.

Deb
